

JOB VACANCY : ASSISTANT COUNTY ATTORNEY OF KARNES COUNTY, TEXAS

The Karnes County Attorney's Office has an open position for a misdemeanor prosecutor. Duties will include evaluation and prosecution of misdemeanor and juvenile criminal offenses. The prosecutor will be expected to screen and evaluate cases received from law enforcement, file and argue pretrial motions, work with law enforcement, victims and other witnesses, engage in plea negotiations, and try appropriate cases in court.

Applicants must be licensed to practice law in the state of Texas as of date of application. Benefits include employer paid medical, retirement, other employee supplemental coverage, as well as paid State Bar dues and CLE, paid vacation, paid holidays and sick leave.

Karnes County has a population of 15,000 and is located sixty miles south of San Antonio. Applicants may submit a resume and references via email to Jennifer M. Dillingham, County Attorney : jennifer.dillingham@co.karnes.tx.us