OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE INFORMATION

Filing an Occupational License in the Karnes County Court

Notice: This procedure can be very complicated; it is beneficial to employ an attorney to assist you. The Judge, the County Clerk, and the respective staff are prohibited by law to assist you in the preparing of the application or procedural steps taken after Judge signs the order.

“7 Easy Steps” to getting an Occupational License (OCC):

1. Go to texaslawhelp.org to download a copy of a packet for an occupational driver license.
2. Go to or call any insurance company to purchase a Financial Responsibility Insurance Certificate (SR-22).
3. Go to dps.texas.gov for a copy of your certified AR driver record (if you currently have an ID, also download a copy of the DL-174 to surrender the ID).
4. Go to the County Clerk’s Office to present the documentation, the filing fee is $350. Upon Court approval, they will give you a copy, this copy you will keep on you at all times while driving.
5. Make a check/money order payable to DPS for your reinstatement & occupational license fee, ($10 for a 1-year license or $20 for a 2-year license.)
6. The clerk’s office will also mail certified mail a copy of all the above to:
Texas DPS
Attn: CCR
P.O. Box 15999
Austin, Texas 78761

You will be able to drive on your copy of the court order for 45 days during the up to 21 business days it may take for DPS to process the OCC.

1. (This step ONLY applies if your license has been expired for more than 2 years.) Once DPS processes the court order, you will receive a letter advising you to Schedule an appointment for driver license/identification card services. Click here to visit a Texas Driver License Office to complete any required testing.
